Proving that motorsport is fun even when it's dirty and dusty!

Sophia McCall's moment of the year was Rallye Prescott, marking the end of her first season racing with the BWRDC.

“After a year of highs and lows, including a crash at Prescott earlier on, it was in this moment that I realised that both the car and I had made it through our debut season in (just about!) one piece. It felt like coming full circle, finishing at the very track where it all began in June with IntoSpeed.”
